Sudbrooke Spring Clean and Litter- Pick Saturday morning 10th March

No doubt readers have noticed the considerable amount of litter blown into hedgerows and around the communal areas of our village. An early litter-pick is needed to clean up our place. This would have the added advantage of not disturbing nesting birds or other wildlife.

If you can spare some time to help other volunteers, it would be much appreciated. Please do make a note in your diary.

If we get a reasonable number of volunteers, it should only take an hour or so to complete the job. Volunteers should meet at the village hall from 9-30am if you would like a cup of tea or coffee or juice in readiness for a 10-00am start. There will be a short health and safety briefing as we hand out litter grippers, gloves and bags. If you wish to bring along your own equipment, please do so.

I do hope we can count on your support.

A great response to the appeal for a graphic artist in last month's edition. The Parish Council are supporting a parishioner's suggestion of producing a pictorial map of the village (like the one outside the Nettleham Co-op) and incorporating it as a permanent tribute to the Queen's Jubilee Celebrations. Several offers of help came forward demonstrating this village has a hidden wealth of talent and expertise.

I also understand that a positive offer to the Parish Council has emerged from a reader's letter in the last edition of Sudbrooke News bemoaning the lack of "youth facilities" in our village. I really hope something takes off as this leads me onto the negative side of this month's Editor's ramble.

Your Editor receives quite a few phone calls from readers and is privy to issues which are seldom broadcast. The issue of youth anti social behaviour is constantly raising its ugly head and appears to have reached a crescendo recently. It is clear a very small number of village youths (youths = children/teenagers, i.e. our sons and daughters) are making some of our fellow resident's lives a complete misery. I won't go into specifics but appeal to ANYONE who is the subject of antisocial behaviour or low level youth crime, PLEASE REPORT IT IMMEDIATELY TO THE POLICE, ideally obtaining an incident or crime reference number. More often than not it seems the Police are not being made aware of these incidents and in fairness, I can't see how they can help us if we don't tell them.

Vicar's Letter

The Vicarage, Langworth Tel. 01522 – 754233

During the Season of Lent it can be a good discipline to re-read (or read for the first time) one of the Gospels in the New Testament section of the Bible. Of the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John), Mark is the shortest.

In our modern Bibles it is very helpful to have the books divided up by Chapters and Verses. It is easy to forget that it was not always so. The Bible originally had no chapter or verse references. When people referred to portions of Scripture, they used subject matter or first words as a title. Stephen Langton, Archbishop of Canterbury, divided the Latin Bible into chapters in 1205 to make it easier to cite biblical texts. Scholars working with Cardinal Hugo de Santo Care made a chapter division around 1248. The practice spread to other languages, with the chapters divided into lettered sections, usually seven. Rabbi Nathan printed a Hebrew Bible with verse divisions in Venice in 1524. Robert Estienne (Stephanus, or Stevens) of Paris, a Protestant, introduced numbered verses in his printed editions of the Greek New Testament in 1551 and the Hebrew Bible in 1571. The Geneva Bible of 1560 was the first English Bible with both chapter and verse numbers.

Traditionally, the Four Gospel writers, or evangelists, each have a winged symbol – as evidenced in the internal stonework of Sudbrooke Church. Have a look sometime and see if you can spot them. St. Matthew's symbol is a winged man, St. Mark's a winged lion, St. Luke's a winged Ox, and St. John's a winged eagle.

In a troubled world, the "Serenity Prayer" is a useful one to have in one's prayer armoury :-

"God grant us the serenity to accept the things we cannot change, courage to change the things we can, and wisdom to know the difference."

It has a great calming influence. This prayer has been popularized through the work of Alcoholics Anonymous. Where it came from is still a mystery. Alcoholics Anonymous picked it up from a 1942 obituary in a New York newspaper. Protestant theologian Reinhold Niebuhr (1892-1971) later revealed he had written it as the ending of a sermon. After his death a similar prayer was found in the writings of Theodor Wilhelm, a German university professor who published using the name of the eighteenth-century priest Friedrich Oetinger (1702-1782). A similar prayer has come to light appearing to be derived from a fourteenth-century source called The General's Prayer.

Lent is a time for quiet reflection and meditation on our lives as we currently live them. We are all too familiar with the effects of the "Seven Deadly Sins" :-
1. Pride (vanity) 2. Envy 3. Gluttony 4. Lust 5. Anger (wrath) 6. Greed

(avarice, covetousness) 7. Sloth

It can be good to reflect on their counterparts – the “Seven Contrary Virtues” :-

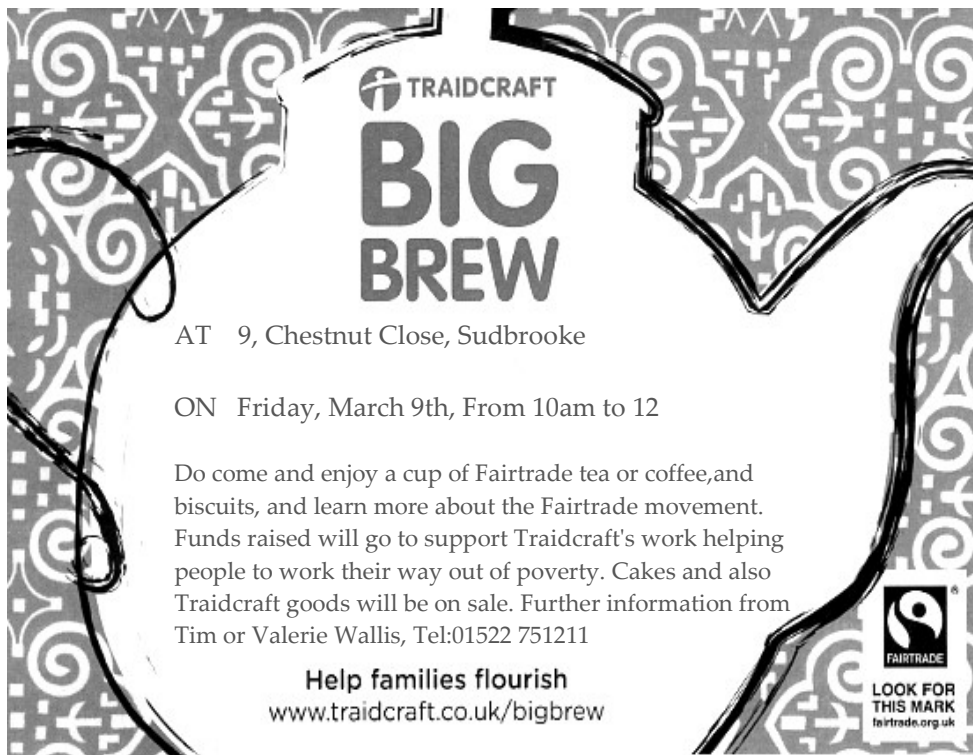

1. Humility
2. Kindness
3. Abstinence
4. Chastity
5. Patience
6. Liberality
7. Diligence

The Church call at the beginning of Lent is :- “I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God’s holy word.”

Further away from home, there are many Christians in many countries around the world who suffer persecution. The Barnabas Fund have produced a very helpful booklet called “Praying for the Persecuted Church in Lent 2012” – with the focus on a different country for each day of Lent (and indeed a little longer, right up to Easter Day).

Whatever you decide to concentrate on during this Lentern Season, may the Lord give you grace to grow in holiness, to deny yourselves, take up your cross and follow him.

Yours, in Christ, Robert Spaight

In memory of.....

Each Easter, at Sudbrooke Church, people donate towards the cost of the Easter flowers in memory of loved ones who have died.

Names of the loved ones are written in a card and read out during the Easter Sunday services. The card then stands on the altar for as long as the flowers last – approx. 3 weeks.

You are most welcome to join in this memorial. If you would like to be involved, please could you let me have your donation and the name(s) you would like writing in the card by Palm Sunday (1st April) at the latest.

Thank you.

Eleanor Clarke, 2, Chestnut Close.

Three companies had been invited to quote for tidying/landscaping the area and two quotations had been submitted in the sums of Company (a) £750 Company (b) £895 It was agreed to accept the quotation of Company (a) Wilkinson Plant Hire in the sum of £750.

Cllr Ian Russell had prepared a suggested planting scheme and agreement was made to purchase and plant 30 plants. Quotations to be invited for the supply of these.

e) Suggestion of village map – A resident had suggested that a map/plan of the village would be a useful and decorative item for the village and he was currently sourcing some suppliers/artwork for this.

Discussion ensued and it was felt that subject to funding which may be available from WLDC for Jubilee events, this landscaping scheme and village plan could be the project for the Diamond Jubilee and named 'Diamond Jubilee Garden'.

It was hoped that a further event could be held in the summer

had given the residents 28 days to remove the obstruction causing encroachment on Church Lane.

b) Grip Cutting, Sudbrooke/ Nettleham Lane – Following a request for the grips to be cut out of the highway verge to allow water to drain away the Highways Officer had reported that he was currently awaiting a meeting with Central Networks to agree a safe method of work due to the proximity of the 11Kv power lines along the length of this road. Once this is obtained he would arrange for a road closure so that the works can be undertaken.

c) Possibility of gritting of bus route through village during severe weather – It was hoped that the gritting of the bus route by a local contractor could be paid for from a grant from WLDC. The amount of times the road would be gritted would be dependent upon how much grant was available.

It is a gathering to reflect on what has gone on in the village during the past year, local organisations can give a report of what they have done – a good time to ‘plug’ their group, get some publicity and maybe some new members as their report will be published in the magazine and on the new website. Secretaries – please put a few words together and come along at 7.00pm.

Report of Parish Council Meeting held on 2nd February 2012

Cllr Bernard Bartram, Clerk Chris Myers and resident Roy Summerfield had attended instruction on the setting up and maintaining of a village website linked to the County Council website. This is now live! For the link, just google Sudbrooke Parish Council. Roy Summerfield has very kindly offered to be the Site Manager so any suggestions or local information that you have can be added to the site, send it via the Clerk at myers1@ntlworld.com. Anything of interest can be included - events, details on local organisations, history. Have a look and submit your feedback.

Area of land fronting Beech Close/Village Map

The purchase of 30 shrubs for planting on the land fronting Beech Close were approved and local resident and business owner, Adrian Morvinson, has kindly paid for them. Following a suggestion by a resident for a map/plan of the village it is hoped that this can come to fruition and be sited on the area of land. The Wood Carving Group have also offered seats that can be added. A grant has been applied for to help pay for the clearing and tidying up of the area which should begin now that the weather is picking up. As the grant is associated with the Queens Diamond Jubilee suggestions are welcomed for a name for the 'garden' - There is a poll on the web site, please have a look and forward your suggestion - it could be named 'Sudbrooke Jubilee Garden', 'Queen Elizabeth Diamond Jubilee Garden', let us know your feelings.

Gritting of bus route through the village

A grant has been obtained from West Lindsey District Council for £250 for assistance to the village in severe weather.

A quotation for the gritting of the bus route in accordance with LCC instructions has been accepted from Wilkinson Plant Hire in the sum of £87 per gritting session. £250 will not pay for many 'grits' so it will only happen when conditions are severe, it will however help.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor

The conflicts in Iraq, Afghanistan and Libya have placed Britain's Armed Forces in the public eye, and through their tributes to the fallen the good people of Royal Wootton Bassett did much to place Britain's Armed Forces at the forefront of the public conscience. In recent years, that same public conscience has turned to the plight of those who returned from combat with severe injuries, and the plight of the Military Families who have been bereaved by the losses and those who care for the wounded.

Each year, in November, the Nation is awash with Poppies, and under Royal Patronage the Royal British Legion plays a leading role in the Acts of Remembrance in the Royal Albert Hall, in Whitehall, and in Memorial Services throughout the Country. It is, of course, a fitting and unifying gesture when the Nation comes together to pay tribute to those who 'gave their today for our tomorrow', and the acts of remembrance are a fitting climax to the British Legion's Year.

But when the bands fall silent and the traffic rolls on past the poppy wreaths and crosses, it is for the Service Charities to turn their attention to the 'tomorrow' of those who grieve and those who are left to care for the injured. The Royal British Legion is the largest Service Charity, and it works year round with other Charities and Services to ensure that the needs of the Military Family are met. For the Royal British Legion, the Military Family means anyone who is serving or has served with the Armed Forces - and all their dependants. Moreover, it is a life-long commitment, and this means that over 10 million people are eligible for its welfare support.

In 2010 the Royal British Legion raised over £36 million pounds. But 2011 was a special year, because the Royal British Legion was celebrating its 90th Anniversary, and it set a new target of £90 million pounds. This month, the National Chairman was able to report that, as a result of the efforts of its 'Army of Volunteers' and the generosity of the British Public, the fund raising activities had resulted in 90% of the target being met, with over £80 million pounds being raised. It will, however, be appreciated that the raising of money is not an end in itself. The funds are there to deal with the legacy of conflict and provide a welfare service to those who served and have served, and those who depend or depended upon them.

I have been a member of the Welton and District Branch of the Royal British Legion for over ten years, and I have always admired the work of the Committee and its fund-raising volunteers. Year on year they have gone about their business with no thought for thanks or recognition, and there are many members of this community who owe them a debt of gratitude. I am therefore honoured to have been invited to join that Committee, as Secretary, and I am now in the learning process. But my first lesson has been to appreciate the efforts of existing members and to recognise the need for new and additional members. In other parts of West Lindsey, Branches have closed through lack of support, and this is a great sadness; because the need for support continues.

So the door is always open to new members who will 'promote and safeguard the welfare interests and memory of those who served and are serving in Her Majesty's Forces and their dependants'; and enquiries are always welcome. We welcome all supporters of the Service community, you don't have to have an Armed Forces background to join

Dear Editor

In front of The Village Shop front entrance there is a wide strip of Parish owned grass verge. It is mowed and maintained by the Parish Council. Instead of a pleasant green grass area it has become a rutted, muddy, unsightly, quagmire in damp or wet weather where cars park with one wheel on the grass and one wheel on the road. Apparently so that shoppers get less wet in inclement weather than they would if they parked in the car park provided.

This used to be prevented by the two triangular "No parking" cones that stood on the edge of the verge. They were not marked "Police" signs so had no legal significance but they did the job. No one parked on the grass and it looked verdant and attractive.

However, these two signs were removed, apparently I am informed by the shop owner, by the Council as authority had not been sought to place them there. They might not have been pretty but they looked a lot better than the water-logged ditches and ruts that are there now.

As this might reflect badly on our chance in The Best Kept Village Competition is the Council prepared to erect posts or bollards to prevent this damage. The yellow signs cost nothing, having been donated free. It's a pity they could not have been left there.

One begs the question? How much will other means of preventing parking on the verge cost the public? Do I detect a "Jobsworth" somewhere?

Dear Editor

Pheasants and their Enemies

(Luke Dawson and Stewart Aisthorpe of Sudbrooke) recently auditioned for the Live and Unsigned music competition and have made it to the regional finals and are now six weeks away from playing live at Sheffield City Hall in front of some of the music industries top professionals. Moreover, we are potentially two performances away from the O2 so it's all a little surreal. We suspect that we are one of the few bands from Lincolnshire (and almost certainly the only one from sunny Suddy) to have entered this competition as no auditions in the immediate area were available and we are therefore trying to drum up local support.

We just received our feedback from the auditions which was short and sweet. "Like it. Original. You look good together" which was in fact some of the most positive of the auditions.

All info for the competition is available at:
<http://www.liveandunsigned.uk.com/> but we are only just in the process of putting our myspace/website together as everything has been so whirlwind.

We are also selling tickets for the live show on the 25th March 2012 and would love as many people from the village to come and show their support.

Queen's Diamond Jubilee Celebrations June 2012

Sudbrooke Parish Council are pleased to announce that they will be commemorating the Diamond Jubilee by developing a special area of the village to the rear of the Millennium Stone to include some specimen shrubs, a special stand featuring a map of the village together with details of footpath walks and some carved seats supplied by our woodcarving group.

We would like some ideas from the community on what the area should be called so we can get signs made in readiness for the official opening on the Jubilee weekend in June. Please contact the Editor or any parish councillor (details inside this magazine).

It was felt this would be a better idea than having a street party and our neighbours in Scothern are already arranging a whole host of events over that weekend. We would not want to clash and it was thought the garden idea would remain as a reminder for many years to come.

The site is programmed for clearance within February, early March by a local contractor and we already have agreed sponsorship for the initial thirty shrubs courtesy of Sudbrooke resident Adrian Morvinson, Managing Director and owner of "Just Audi/VW", a new car dealership on Outer Circle Road and also Lincolnshire Co-operative via another resident Lisa Broadbent for the design and production of a village map. We will still need to source a wooden or metal stand for the map however. Any offers?

Other residents are also offering the possibility of another map sited elsewhere in the village.

We would welcome any further ideas, further sponsorship or help for the Jubilee celebrations—any offers accepted will be recognised and publicised.

GARDENING NEWS

Hello and welcome to Gardening News again.

The first signs of spring are showing, and I have made a start on tidying up the front garden.

The first job was to cut down the 8ft tall grass Stipa gigantea using an electric hedge cutter. Doing this job reminded me of last winter when the heavy snowfall built up on the top of the grass until the weight of it caused it to collapse in a heap. Thankfully this season has not been so harsh.

The Michaelmass daisies require some attention having grown into a large clump last year. The stems are very dry and breaking off easily and the clump will have to be lifted and split and one piece being replanted in the garden and the other half set aside for planting later in the shrubbery border. In the meantime it will join the stock of plants ready to be planted as soon as the border is ready.

If the weather is still dry tomorrow the lawn will have its second cut of the season.

Looking around the back garden, there seems so much to do at the moment. On the colder days, I spend time either in the greenhouse or the polytunnel. The greenhouse is filled with young herbaceous plants, soon to be planted out in the new border, and the propagator has seed trays with Gazania, Lobelia, and Salpiglossus awaiting germination and growing on ready for bedding out later into baskets and pots.

The polytunnel has had a vegetable bed prepared and sown with carrots, beet-roots and spring onions. This takes up one side, and the other side will later on be prepared for tomato and cucumber plants. However, lack of heating means that this planting will not take place until April.

Probably the busiest time of the year in the garden is spring when everything comes to life, plants need to be grown and planted out and the lawns start to grow rapidly, and weeds start to flourish and become a nuisance. Plenty to keep me busy !

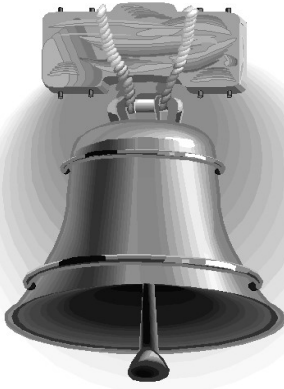

Farewell until next time.

The Old Codger.....

I have always liked the sound of church bells. But not everyone will agree with me. I am sure that if you live next door to a church and have to listen for a couple of hours a week to a group of bell ringers (Campanologists. Why are they called that? Can anyone who knows write in and tell me) yanking away on the ropes until they get it right you might be a trifle less enthralled. I said ... " IT MIGHT BE A BIT TOO LOUD FOR YOU !!

But you chose to live there ,or stay there. I expect that it interferes a bit with your TV or Radio enjoyment but for those of us who live slightly further afield it is a most comforting and pleasant sound even when the peel of the bells is not quite in tune. It takes a lot of practise to get the peel just right but a lot of dedicated bell ringers get a lot of enjoyment and exercise in practising and perfecting their art. To my mind it seems a very pleasant hobby where the finished results give pleasure to a great many folks over a large area. Not that I have ever tried it myself. (Although I like to think of myself as being a bit of a swinger in my younger days.)

I once had the chance to visit a bell foundry in Whitechapel in London's East End where bells have been made for many hundreds of years and where BIG BEN was cast. It is amazing how many man hours it takes to produce even the most modest type of church bell from molten metal. It's not a very nice place to have to work in with all the smoke and fumes and noise but that particular foundry has employed several generations of highly skilled hardworking folk who took great pleasure in their craft knowing that the finished product would give pleasure to so many, both in this country and abroad.

At the outbreak of WW2 the ringing of church bells was banned as they were to be rung only in the case of invasion. You can imagine the joy of hearing those bells again after hostilities ended. I know that I saw tears running down the faces of men and women in the street as they heard the sound of those bells after almost six years of being silent. They went on for an hour at least in every town and village in the land. I am sure that the bell ringers must have been nearly deaf and totally exhausted by the time they finished. The trouble was that they were not very tuneful either as they had been unable to practise for five years or more. But they still sounded wonderful. Some of us children couldn't remember ever hearing them before.

Many small villages such as our own and neighbouring villages had only one bell in the parish church which was used to summon the faithful on Sundays and Special Days such as Funerals and Weddings and Christenings. With so many churches and places of worship being closed down now the tolling of bells is becoming a fairly rare sound except in the proximity of large Churches or Cathedrals in Urban areas. Somehow, someone at the top of a round minaret wailing away does not seem quite so pleasant to me but I expect it is pleasant enough to those who live in many of our towns and cities and have different religions to mine. Me though!. Give me a peel of bells any day! When I married my wife. Even though I was as poor as a church mouse I paid for the bell ringers and the choir to give it their very best and they both did us proud. There is nothing so wonderful as the sound of church bells as a married couple leave the church after their wedding. I enjoyed it so much I've thought of doing it again. (Same wife of course !) Trouble is when she is asked that all important question. "Do you take this man etc." she might say "Not ruddy likely !" so I'm not going to risk it. I don't want to drop a clanger!.

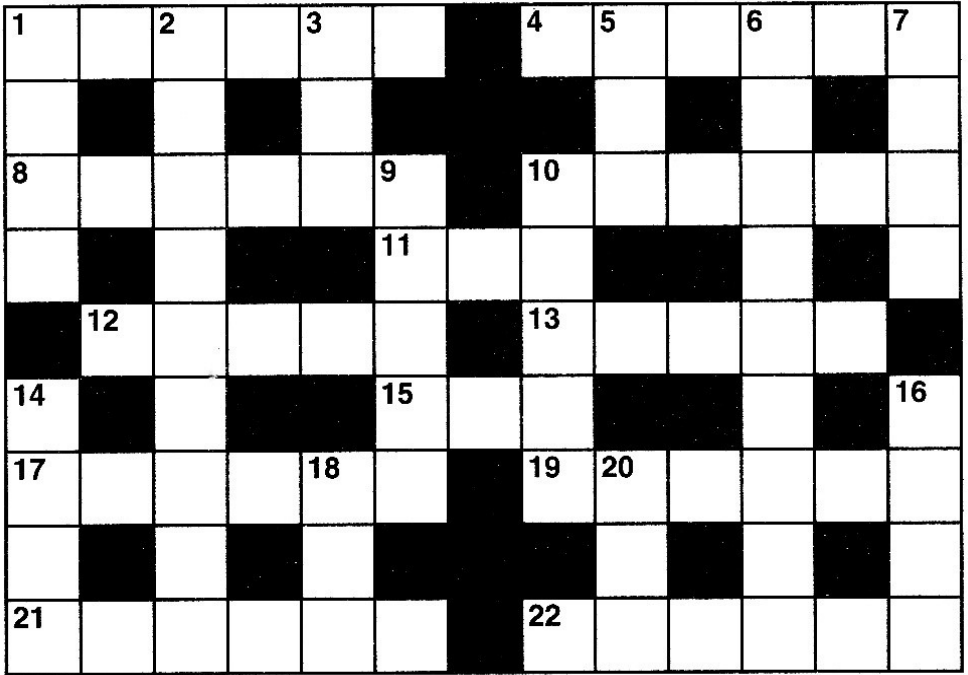

My wife says she deserves a medal for putting up with me. If her name was Victoria it would be Victoria's Cross, (which she often is) I asked her which medal I deserved and she told me "Definitely the B.U.M. "

On that note I will leave you. Just like Quasimodo with a ringing in my ears. Ding dong bell, pussy's in the well ! I hope my little verbal ramble appealed to you.

Joking aside, I really would like to know why the descriptive noun for a group of bell ringers is Campanologists. If you know the answer, please write or E mail in.

Sudbrooke's Own Website

Sudbrooke Parish Council is pleased to announce the launch of the village's own website supported by Lincolnshire County Council.

To access it just enter "Sudbrooke Parish Council" on Google and have a look.

Already there are copies of Sudbrooke News, minutes of past Parish Council meetings, news about plans for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations and a host of other items for your interest. There is a secure feedback form included on the site to let us know what you think and offer any ideas for future inclusion.

If you prefer to contact us direct please contact myself or our webmaster Roy Summerfield (contact details supplied on request).

The sky is the limit (almost) with this site but we would like to expand it to meet your expectations.

One idea that has already been suggested is "Historic Sudbrooke"---offers of any information and photographs of the village, it's residents or events in past times (even back in the 1970's) would be considered for publication, please see the last issue of Sudbrooke News and have a root through your old photographs.

Don't worry we can scan them for you and format them to put on the website (credited to you if you wish).

Sudbrooke Gardening Club

Next meeting is Monday 12th March, 7-30pm at the village hall.

Guest speaker is John Moss. Everyone is welcome to attend this meeting. I am delighted to say John Moss from Eagle will be our speaker at the meeting. John is a very experienced horticulturalist and always willing to give sound practical advice on any gardening matters. John's session will include a discussion on garden recovery following the harsh winter of 2010/11, so do have your questions ready.

He will then talk about what should be done now to prepare for summer and autumn colour. Finally, a question and answer opportunity on any gardening matters. Free tea, coffee and biscuits will be served midway through the evening. The meeting should end no later than 9-30pm.

To help defray costs, an admission charge of £2 per adult will be made.

Spring Show is Sunday 1st April at the village hall.

We are holding the show a little earlier than usual to avoid the Easter holidays. The show is open to all residents of Sudbrooke. We should like to build on the success of the shows last year by encouraging more adults and children to enter. The classes of entries are wide ranging, so if you have grown or made something you would like to show others, do please enter.

Viewing of exhibits and prize giving start from around 2-45pm.

Exhibits to be handed in at the village hall between 12-00noon and 1-30pm

Teas, coffee, soft drinks and cakes will be available from 1-30pm.

The show schedule of entries and rules follow on pages 23 and 24.

Country Walks

February walk

13 walkers braved the frosty weather to enjoy a splendid walk from the centre of Market Rasen through Willingham Woods, Robert's Wood and Legsby Wood before crossing open fields on the return journey to Market Rasen.

Bright sunshine was very welcome during the 8 mile walk, more especially so as heavy snow fell later in the day.

Next walk is Saturday 3rd March

A circular walk starting in Hagworthingham and passing through Bagendersby, Somersby and Ashby Puerovum. The walk is approx 6 miles on a mix of tracks, fields and some roads but very little traffic to contend with. There are 3 churches to view with the added bonus of JJs café in Hagworthingham for those who wish to enjoy homemade food after the walk. Walkers should meet at the village hall at 9-30am. Walkers are advised to take a waterproof coat, use suitable footwear and bring a snack and a drink. If you wish to walk and need a lift, please turn up at the village hall. Everyone is welcome to join in this free and healthy activity.

Future walk is Saturday 7th April

Venue to be arranged and will depend on ground conditions. The distance will be between 6 and 8 miles and we aim to be back in Sudbrooke by 1-30pm.

25th Lincoln (Scothern) Scout Group are collecting Tesco's and Sainsbury's Vouchers

It is that time of year when both Tesco and Sainsbury's help many organisations and schools by giving out vouchers to be exchanged for sporting goods, equipment and computers.

This year the vouchers will be available from the relevant shops as follows:

Sainsbury's – 15 February until 10 April

Tesco – from 12 March

We have been collecting for a few years and have benefitted from both groups with the provision of basketballs, indoor hockey, orienteering set, tennis net, and basic camping equipment. This has been due to the marvellous collection of vouchers by our members, parents, family and others in the local villages. A big thank you to you all.

Once again could I ask that if you don't know who to give your vouchers too, please consider sending them to us, the 25th Lincoln (Scothern) Scout Group. Please collect them at the till and drop them in to me at 52 Scothern Lane, Sudbrooke, Lincoln, LN2 2QJ.

In the meantime you can see some of the things we get up to by visiting our new website at

Welton Family Health Centre

Thank you to everyone who has taken part recently in our survey about our telephone system. We are discussing the results with our Patient Group at their next meeting and will be posting them on the Practice Website afterwards.

An advance notice - the Practice is switching computer systems (not now just upgrading our existing system) on 2nd May 2012. Obviously we are hoping for the minimum of disruption but anticipate some interruption to normal services around that time, although every effort will be made to avoid this.

With immediate effect, on the published Practice training afternoons ( usually the third Tuesday in each month ) callers to the Practice between 1pm and 5pm will be re-directed to an emergency centre ( currently at Lindum Medical Centre, Cabourne Avenue, Lincoln ) and if patients need to be seen urgently they will be asked to attend there between these hours to see the emergency doctor.

The method of reporting on cervical smear results is changing with effect from April which may result in revised recall dates for ladies, depending upon the results of the test. Further details will be given to ladies who are invited to attend for cervical screening.

DNA ( did not attends ) in January – 63 in the surgery and 23 reported by the hospital. As always, please let us know if you are unable to keep an appointment so that others may utilise the slot.

Dunholme Camera Club

Hi everyone, I have been missing for a couple of months due to an extended holiday so here we are again with some information about the meetings at the Camera Club for March. Our first meeting on the 1st March will be our first Club competition which will be an "Open" competition which means anything goes, so the members have to make their selection from their images and present them for our first competition of the year.

On the 15th March we will be looking at some of the Lincolnshire Photographic competition prints from past years to give us ideas ready for the summer period and to see the work of other L.P.A member clubs, it's always good to see images taken by other photographers throughout the county (a good night if anyone would like to see the standard of photography that is capable by joining the club) so come along on the night.

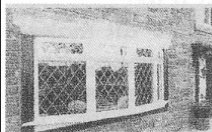

Our final meeting for March will be on the 29th when we will be deciding the format and objects that we will be bringing ready for the "Its a small world" competition in April. Plus there should be time to have a general photographic discussion on the night.

If you require any further information please do not hesitate to get in touch, we need some new members for 2012 so get yourself down to the club and join in a local activity.
