Vicars Letter

The Vicarage, Langworth Tel. 01522 – 754233

As I prepare to retire from the parishes in the Benefice of Barlings, this will be my last contribution to the Sudbrooke News. Next month's issue will cover both July and August and Rev. Penny Green who takes over from me will be occupying this space. She will be known to some of you as she is already in post at South Lawres and lives at Cherry Willingham. Later in the year, it is proposed that their 4 churches will be combined with the 4 in this benefice. My official retirement date is 30th September, but I will be taking my last services on 25th August so I can use my final month to sort out transferring paperwork and preparing to move from the vicarage.

As we 'downsize' in readiness for the move, I come across papers recording various events over different periods of time. Many bring back happy memories, but there are some sad ones too. Rudyard Kipling's words in his poem "If" have always been a favourite with me, especially the couplet "If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster, and treat those two imposters just the same."

Incumbents come and go – in a sense "Here today, and gone tomorrow" people – just ministers in a long line of succession stretching back across the centuries. It is the Church Wardens and Parochial Church Council who are the real continuity – and during my time here I have been blessed with the highest quality of folk in these roles. Thank you all who have served in them.

Also, thank you all for the privilege of being your Rector for the past years, and may God bless you as you enter the brave new world of being part of a larger grouping. You will always be in my thoughts and prayers, as – like the old soldier of the early 20th century popular song who does not die but "simply fades away" – I will simply fade away at the end of the Summer.

Thank you for the memories.

Yours, in Christ, Robert Spaight

GARDENING NEWS

Hello and welcome to more Gardening News. The sun was shining when I first sat down to write, but it has now become gloomy and wet again - more April showers? Even though it is now May, the weather is still very unsettled. It is very difficult to make any progress in the garden.

In the front garden most plants have recovered and are doing well. However, the Quince (Chaenomoles) which would normally start to bloom in late January was delayed until early May, when it eventually burst into bloom and is still covered in beautiful red blossom. One casualty is our Salix Tortuosa, which has come into leaf with an overbalanced one-sided effect. This will be given some serious consideration before Autumn treatment. The wall baskets along the front of the property which contain winter pansies were very slow to come to life but a good feed made a big difference to their performance. They should hold until the end of May when the summer bedding plants will be ready to replace them.

The greenhouse is full of bedding plants which will be transferred to cold frames to harden off before being placed out into the wall baskets at the front house and into pots in the gravelled area in the back garden. These pots have been brought out from their winter quarters and are doing well, in particular four pots of Lewisia, and eight different Hostas, three of which are miniature varieties.

The polytunnel has been cleared ready for the grafted tomatoes and cucumbers when they arrive. The shrubbery area has been gradually cleared as and when weather permitted, and several new shrubs have now been planted. These include Magnolia, Rhododendron, Spiraea, Photinia, two Buddleia, Callistemon (bottle brush). These plants are joining some of the long established plants which have been kept, such as a Camellia which is over 8ft tall and has bloomed beautifully this year, a Ribes (flowering currant) a dwarf Lilac and an Azalea which was already well established in the garden when we moved in twenty two years ago. This Azalea has lovely scented yellow flowers. At the opposite end of the shrubbery area is a Laurel which we also inherited and there are several clumps of Euphorbia. Although the new plants are small and will take time to fill out the shrubbery, we are pleased with result. It has been hard work and has meant that some parts of the garden have been neglected. There is still plenty of work to be done - a never ending battle with ground elder lasts throughout the whole summer. This has, as always thrived despite poor weather and this applies also to the mares-tail which is just as troublesome.

However we can only hope for more settled weather to come. In the meantime, farewell for now.

NETTLEHAM POLICE TEAM

Firstly let me introduce myself. I am the new volunteer Admin. Officer at the Nettleham Village Police Station. My name is Lynn Chantrey and I have lived in Langworth for the past 18 years. I am a keen biker and can often be seen on my big blue trike, you cannot miss me as it is the only trike that carries a wheelchair on the back of it. Since being confined to the chair I have been looking for work that will keep me out of trouble. Volunteering at the station seemed to be the right thing for me. The officers have been very welcoming and I feel part of the team already so because of this I will now be at the village police station every Tuesday and Thursday from 9 am till 4 pm so if you want to pop in with any problems or just for a chat please feel free to do so.

We are pleased to report that crime is low at the moment as there have only been 4 reported crimes in the last month these have been investigated and dealt with accordingly.

If you see or here anything suspicious that you would like the Police to hear about please ring the 101 non emergency number, this number is not instead of the 999 emergency number, if it is an emergency please ring 999 as usual.

Summer is supposedly here although I am not sure where, but that still doesn't stop the grass and hedges growing, with this in mind here are a few tips on keeping your garden equipment safe from sticky fingers.

- Think about upgrading your security on the garden shed, better locks, or a bar across the door.
- Make sure you put everything away at night.
- Think about post coding your items, Nettleham NPT offer a free post coding service.
- Most criminals like to look in the daylight to see what you have got then come back at night, so covering the windows of the shed is also an option, what they can't see they can't get.

If you want to want to keep up to date with local news and crime please visit them on Twitter and Facebook. The team also have an Email address for you to contact them if necessary, these are all listed below.

The Old Codger.....

In general I find most regional country accents pleasant and they give a bit of character to the speaker and add weight to whatever is being related whether it is a story or description of something. Before TV became so popular almost every part of the country had it's own accent and an expert could at once identify from where in the UK the speaker originated . (Mind you even an expert could be wrong. We all remember The Yorkshire Ripper tapes and boy did the expert get that one wrong !?).

The early days of TV had Ena Sharples and all the cast of Coronation Street speaking in a broad Yorkshire accent, as did the characters in Emmerdale Farm as it was called then. But over time all those accents seem to have been watered down and disappeared and even these two very regional TV shows have lost their verbal identity and so have people all over the country.

Our children today do not speak in the broad accents of our grandparents. Certainly not in this area anyway. Some parts of the country have retained watered down versions of accents, but nowhere near as strong as they were fifty years ago. It is still possible to identify a Geordie, a Liverpudlian, Welshman, Devonian, Yorkshireman or Scotsman by his accent and be reasonably sure of an East Anglian. But try to pick out those who come from the south of England and you will have much more difficulty and may well find it impossible to pin down a location. There seems to be an opinion of those seeking to achieve success in today's world that accents are out and it is better not to have one.

There are however, some accents that positively irritate me. The Glaswegian one for a start. I love the plots of "Taggart " that Scottish detective series on TV but I am always two words behind the speaker trying to translate what they have said, especially when they are excited. (Perhaps they could provide sub titles). In general I love the Scots accent and it is a fact that very many of the best English teachers hail from Scotland (Miss Jean Brodie springs to mind).

Am I alone in detesting the French accent ? . Some ladies find the smarmy voice of Charles Hasnovoice or Maurice Chevalier pleasant and sensual but like Winston Churchill said of Charles de Gaulle. "I find myself irritated the moment he opens his mouth" mind you, I feel slightly more appreciative of the accent when Edith Piaf singscan't think why ?? . (My wife has just grunted disapprovingly).

The Cockney accent as spoken by Barbara Windsor in particular and by several male actors always seem to be put on for effect and grates. In general Londoners do not sound like that. As for that ridiculous "Rhyming Slang "that is supposedly understood and used by all native Londoners from birth it is a myth ! Why else is it necessary to follow each uttered phrase with it's translation i.e. Titfer tat ...HatApples and pears ...Stairs ..Syrup of figs ...Wig ..Jam Jar ..Car....No !! it's a myth. They try to tell you that it was invented years ago to fool the supervisors on the London Docks. What a load of cobblers !...I don't have to translate that do I ?

I keep my ear to the ground !...Especially after I fall over after a few pints .

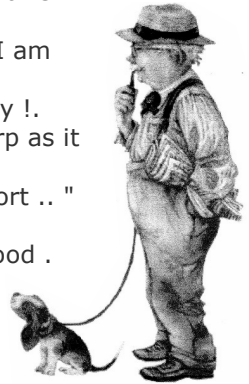

I keep being told I am a nobody ...Well nobody is perfect ..So I am perfect !!

Do you realise that in two days time tomorrow will be yesterday !. I'm getting on a bit now. My short term memory is not as sharp as it used to be !.

My short term memory is not as sharp as it used to be ! My short .. " Oh BOTHER "!!

I love cooking with wine. Sometimes I even put some in the food . Talking of food.

The Headhitter tells me not to keep waffling !! So I will sign off.

Textiles

Eileesh Lightowler, Issy Bochel, Deanna Armstrong, Molly Maddison, Megan Desforges, Olivia Prescott, Lily Robson and Jorji Wright are gearing up for yet another successful fashion collection performance on the Drillhall's catwalk on Wed 3rd July. The work is fantastic and they are hoping for a third successive win for the school. Their collection is called 'Insectichic' inspired by creepy crawlies and they will be rocking the catwalk to Florence & the Machine!

Football

The year 11 football team have won every game and for their last ever match faced a league play-off final against Priory LSST for the championship. What a fantastic performance. They ran out 2-1 winners, with a Kieran Helsdown's penalty followed by a Jordan Edward's header with 3 minutes to go! Jamie Bradley, Steven Brammer, Joe Marshall, Tom Maxwell, Alex Burgess, Aaron Smith, Elliot Dye, Jordan Edwards, Jordan Whitelam, Kieran Helsdown, Steven Radley, James Underwood, Tommy Galloway and Ben Ayres have all been outstanding in terms of attitude, effort and performance.

Technology

Science Gifted and talented

Cherry won the overall competition at the Lincoln University Science and Technology gifted and talented day. We will be competing in London later in the year. Go team Cherry!! Teams led by George Watson and Kali Cox were the winners.

And finally.....

The driver of the Wragby bus complimented our students on how tidy they leave the bus.

ELLISON BOULTERS CE ACADEMY

Football Team

LCFC Stand Up Speak Up
Tournament Champions 2013

Saturday 20 April 2013

Game 1 Vs Bishop King

The team started the tournament quickly going 1-0 up through some fantastic one touch football following a throw-in. Ben G was on hand to finish the move with a half-volley from just outside the box. Ellison Boulters dominated possession and showered the opposition goal with plenty of shots only to see the 'keeper in great form. In the final minutes, Bishop King scored from a long goal-kick which travelled behind our defence, who were caught on the wrong side, and the opposition striker tucked the ball under the on-rushing goal keeper.

Final score: 1-1

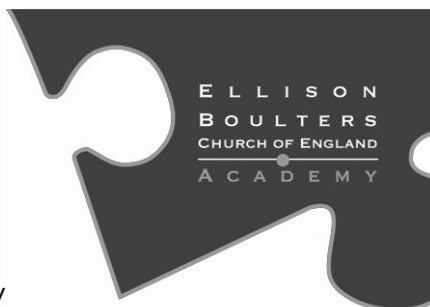

Game 2 Vs SUSU Representative Team

With the knowledge that the team would have to win their remaining games and qualification potentially resting on goal difference, Ellison Boulters started the game quickly, going up 3-0 inside the first 3 minutes through Oliver W, Joseph S and Ravi Y-P. Again the opposition 'keeper pulled off some fantastic saves as Ellison Boulters controlled possession. As the game passed Ravi Y-P, Joseph S and Hugo N(2) would score again to ensure an emphatic win. At the other end, Ruari N had a fantastic game ensuring that Mason H was a spectator in goal.

Final score: 7-0

Game 3 Vs Monks Abbey

Having heard that Bishop King had drawn with Monks Abbey in the previous game, Ellison Boulters knew that a win would see them clinch the coveted first place in the table and a place in the tournament final. Again, Ellison Boulters started brightly with three shots on goal, however Mason H at the other end pulled off a couple of magnificent saves to keep the game goalless. Then came the telling moment when after a corner, a shot on goal from Ellison Boulters was handled by a Monks Abbey player inside the box. The referee blew straight away for a penalty and up stepped the captain, Joseph S who struck the ball hard and straight as it came off the underside of the bar and nestled in the back of the net leaving the 'keeper helpless. With this goal Ellison Boulters grew in confidence and dominated the game scoring another through Ravi Y-P on the counter-attack. In the closing stages, a couple of timely interceptions and tackles meant that Ellison Boulters kept another clean sheet.

Final score: 2-0

Final Vs St. Faith & St. Martin

After scouting the opposition in their final game, Ellison Boulters knew that a disciplined and tactical display would see them lift the cup. Every player gave 100% chasing and harrying, not giving St Faith's a second on the ball. Once again Ellison Boulters kept possession and pressed the opposition high up the pitch limiting them to long range shots. Halfway through the game a goal kick from Joseph S bounced into the opposition area where a deft flick from Ben G saw the ball loop over the stranded 'keeper and into the back of the net. From there on the pressure came but Ellison Boulters remained resilient with Mason H tipping a long range shot over the top of the bar and showing a safe pair of hands. Ellison Boulters closed out the game sensibly taking their time and keeping possession. A counter attack in the closing moments would have seen Ellison Boulters score again, however the chance went just wide. Ellison Boulters celebrated the victory and their tournament win with the captain lifting the trophy.

Final score: 1-0

Sudbrooke Gardening Club

May meeting.

A dry interval between heavy showers allowed members to wander around the garden and orchard of hosts Mike and Margaret Halliday. Unusually for the time of year there were many daffodils and tulips in full bloom. Most of the fruit trees and flowering cherry trees were laden with blossom but as with last year the cold wet weather is deterring the pollinators.

The non-cultivated areas of land were awash with cowslips, some of which had hybridized into different petal shapes and colours.

The vegetable patch and soft fruit beds were struggling compared to a 'normal' year.

A closely contested quiz was won by Sheila and Mike Cannon, Margaret Halliday and Barry Reeves.

Next meeting Monday 10th June.

Will be hosted by David and Sandy Bowles at Stonebrooke House, 46, Scothern Lane from 7-30 pm.

Registered Charity no. 1098364

The group offers emergency care and Basic Life Support in Stainton, Scothern, Langworth and Sudbrooke. We are called out by dialling 999 in an emergency and care can begin before an ambulance arrives because we are based locally in your area.

We are grateful to I Gas, who have given us a grant from their Community Fund. This will be used to buy extra kit and additional training kit.

Thanks go to local businesses which hold our collecting tins. These are an essential part of the fund raising which keeps the group going and helps to pay for training and equipment. Donations from local organisations are also gratefully received. Thanks also to The Bottle and Glass and Lakeside for the use of a room for our meetings.

The group can also provide First Aid cover for events in the community. If you need First Aid cover for your event please contact the Co-ordinator.

Pass 'Go' and collect £500!

West Lindsey District Council is re-launching the Community Action and Volunteering Fund (CAV Fund) under a new name and with more cash up for grabs!

The Community Chest Fund enables groups in West Lindsey to apply for up to £500 to help them with their local projects; previously the maximum was £250.

Areas who are developing a community plan or implementing actions from a current community plan can apply for up to £1,000 to help with this. A Community Led Plan (sometimes known as a Parish Plan) sets out a shared vision for the community and identifies the action needed to achieve it.

So far the CAV Fund, administered by Community Lincs, has helped more than 100 projects and supported around 1,200 volunteers in its first year. The projects have been wide-ranging from village notice boards, to sports kit, to youth activities and community gardens. Treasurer and secretary of the Market Rasen Station Adoption Group, Martin Barnard, is delighted at how the grant made it possible to support a local art group and make a real difference to the look and feel of Market Rasen station.

He said: "We were delighted with how easy it was to apply, how smooth the process was and with the helpful and supportive approach of the people in the West Lindsey CAV team.

"It was so straightforward and beneficial that we have already applied for a further grant."

The Community Chest fund will be available from the 1st May 2013.

If you would like to apply for funding please phone: 01529 301951
Alternatively email: cav.fund@communitylincs.com

Welton Family Health Centre

Recent changes within the NHS will gradually start to have an effect on Primary Care Services as some services that have routinely been provided by GP practices will be forced to go through a tendering process and practices will be putting in bids for such services alongside various private provider companies. We are already aware that INR (anticoagulation clinic) services will be one of the first services and we understand that others will follow later this year. Obviously, our Practice will be submitting bids to retain as many services locally as possible for patients and in an effort to safeguard the future of general practice, many Lincolnshire doctors have formed a federation who will also be bidding for some of these services, called LADMS.

This raises the inevitable question of conflict of interest and undoubtedly there will be some, but those doctors in our Practice who have joined LADMS are keen to declare their interests and any other potential interests have been reported back to the Clinical Commissioning Group in an effort to be open and transparent. Whilst private companies have a responsibility to their shareholders and the overall aim is to make profit, our interests are preserving NHS services locally, and not profit generation. We are obviously concerned that if private providers do "cherry pick" some of our services, if profit is not forthcoming then those services could quickly disappear and leave patients with no services locally.

Please could patients be aware that requests for repeat prescriptions require two working days to be processed. Therefore any requests made (whether in person, on the telephone, email or answer machine) after 5.30 pm on a Friday will not be ready for collection until Wednesday. If you require a prescription urgently, please contact the dispensary staff directly.

If you are planning a trip abroad this summer and would like advice on vaccinations, please complete one of our holiday vaccination forms at least 6 weeks before travel, where possible. Forms are available from Reception and on the Practice website (www.weltonurgery.co.uk).

Welton & District Patients And Doctors Association

Has summer finally arrived? We've had a few lovely days so let's hope we get a few more before autumn creeps in!

Speaking of autumn our next event will be the Autumn Fayre which will be held on Saturday 12th October in Welton Village Hall commencing at 2pm.

There will be all of the usual attraction- raffle, tombola, cake stall, bric a brac and books plus prize games to take part in and a large variety of stalls selling crafts, toiletries, art work etc.

If anyone is interested in hiring a table, at a cost of £5, to sell their own items, please contact Roy Minnitt (860980) or myself (862570) to add your name to the list. We will aim to get a good variety of sale items and will notify you during August if your request to hire a table has been successful.

We will be collecting donations of bric a brac, books, tombola items etc nearer the time. Please let me know if you are unable to deliver them to the hall on the morning of the 12th and I will arrange collection. Any donations for the bottle and glass tombola would also be welcome and we would also like any 'in date' grocery items to guess the value of the shopping trolley contents.

There will be more information in the July edition of the magazine. Our new system of fixed price charging for transport to the Health Centre seems to have been well received. If you have a comment, either good or bad, about these changes please inform the Health Centre staff or any driver who will pass the message on to me.

IT Speak

Hi Folks,

This month:
Building
Your Own
PC—7

various tips and tricks that will help you. It's a good idea to make a 'map' of the way in which components will be connected to the system board. Remember also that system boards often come with the battery pre-fitted so there is already power, albeit very small, flowing through the circuits. Handle the system board by the sides wherever possible and avoid the possibility of touching, and therefore short-circuiting, components. It's a good idea to use protective latex gloves when handling any electronic components. Wherever possible, assemble the parts outside of the main computer case to ensure ample room for fingers and tools. You may also find that some items, once fitted to the system board, may obscure the screw holes that fit the system board to the case. Many cases can fit various sizes of system board so check which fittings/layout you need to use. There are usually 6 or 9 holes on the system board that will align with holes on the case chassis. Stand-offs, or posts, are provided which keep the system board raised from the case chassis to avoid short-circuits so fit these now.

You now have your completed list of hardware, added your chosen software, found the cheapest places to buy, ordered what you need, and the pile of parts is now sitting on and around your kitchen table in shiny boxes. Your adrenaline starts flowing, your heart's beating fast and you're thinking - Where on Earth do I start?

Well, this is how it all goes together but wait.... I hope you remember the first few articles in this series. You must, absolutely must, take anti-static precautions before you take any of the parts out of their boxes—static is a killer of electronic components so play safe. Also, place a covering on the table to avoid scratches and other damage. Read the documents that come with each component; always follow the instructions as manufacturers know their products best and fitting is often unique to that particular item. Use the Internet to research and review fitting of similar items by other people; they can discuss

Dunholme Camera Club

The Camera Club has 2 events during June, our first event is on the 13th June when we will be having our "Whisby Wander" this night will be a night out at the Whisby Nature Reserve so exercise and taking pictures all good things combined. I must admit that one of the advantages of being an amateur photographer is that whilst you are out looking for the images of your choice it also acts as a source of good exercise. I recently visited Whisby during the day and walked for about 2 hours, I didn't take many pictures but certainly had a very long walk.

Our second meeting will be back at the club house at The Old School Dunholme when we will be viewing the images from all of the clubs in Lincolnshire and choosing the top 3. This is a fairly relaxed night where the members can discuss the images over a cup of tea and then finally make their choice of their favourite 3 images. So if you would like to come down and meet us all on a night when you can ask what we do? When we do it and how we do it then this is the night to drop in and share an evening with us.

The Camera Club is there for the community if you are reading this then you are part of that community, if you have an interest in taking better pictures then come to a few of the meetings and find out how we can help you. We cover a variety of topics during the year so either drop me a line, make a phone call or just come along to one of our meetings at The Old School Dunholme.
