BACK-UP back-up back up - I learned a valuable lesson the other week after my laptop went belly up, with most of my Sudbrooke News archives going for a burton. Hence, this is the reason why the mag is a little late this month...

Remembrance Day and Bonfire Night are obviously the big events this month, with plenty of events in and around the area to mark the occasions, although Remembrance Sunday will be more poignant this year given that it is 100 years since the start of the First World War.

We have a couple of special features from residents this month, with Alec C Carrotte's own take on British values, which makes for very interesting reading, while Paul Creasey tells us all about his family band 'Life Story', who will be playing live at the Village Hall near Christmas.

The Christmas Tree switch-on will be happening later this month, full details on page three, and so hopefully there will be a good turnout this year in support of those few who put all the hard work in. It's ok. Dom

■ e) Highway matters:

i) Community Speed watch - Passive and Reactive Sign trial - offer of passive signs/ purchase of licence agreement with Lincolnshire Road Safety Partnership and consideration of purchase of reactive device: This was discussed in depth and felt that any passive signs would be ignored by motorists and that it would be of more benefit if a Police speed check were carried out. Resolved: To request that the Police carry out a speed check in the village.

ii) Archer Survey, West Drive: The Highways Department had agreed to carry out this survey.

iii) Condition of footpath outside 3 & 5 Greenway: The poor condition of this area of footway was highlighted in particular with it being a bus stop. The Clerk to report this to LCC Highways.

■ Councillor Peter Heath drew attention to the safety of the servicing of the noticeboard on the corner of Wragby Road. It was also noted that its condition was deteriorating. Resolved: That this noticeboard should be removed from its current location.

DC Stuart Curtis had offered £500 towards the purchase of a new board from the District Councillor's Initiative Fund. A new board could be purchased from Pelican Trust to the same style as the frame containing the map of Sudbrooke and sited in the Jubilee Garden. OCTOBER MEETING

■ Marvin Liddel gave a fascinating talk about bees and honey production.

Marvin has three hives and uses Buckfast Abbey bees because of their superior foraging abilities.

The hives are a standard national design and each hive costs approximately £200

Marvin demonstrated a hive construction and explained the function of each component part.

He covered the hive hierarchy starting with the queen who typically produces between one and two thousand eggs per day. Next are the drones, between 300 and 500 of them and finally the worker bees who number between 60,000 and 80,000.

Bee keeping is not without its challenges, particularly from the Veroa mite. Because bees are now imported on a large scale, new challenges are emerging such as the Asian hornet and the small hive beetle.

Marvin covered the reasons why bees swarm and recounted his recent experiences around Dunholme.

Members took the opportunity to buy Marvin's honey and beeswax candles.

■ Members should note there is no meeting in November.

TAKING A WALK IN THE COUNTRY

With Mike Halliday

OCTOBER WALK

Because of the dreadful weather forecast, the walk venue was changed from the very exposed Tealby route to an eight-mile walk from Market Rasen through Willingham Woods and the surrounding countryside.

The trees provided some shelter and interesting colour for the 13 hardy walkers who endured non-stop rain at varying levels of intensity.

Our only diversion was from an irate farmer who had planted a flourishing crop across a public footpath and was put out that we were proposing to cross his field. He had done the same thing in two other fields and had not put out any markers for the public footpaths.

NOVEMBER WALK

Weather permitting, the seven-mile walk from Tealby Church to Walesby Church should provide some stunning views. If the weather is bad, an alternative local walk will be done.

Walkers should meet at the Village Hall at 9.30am and are advised to take a waterproof coat, wear suitable footwear, take a snack and a drink.

If you wish to walk and need a lift, please turn up at the village hall. Everyone is welcome to join in this free and healthy activity.

IDENTIFYING BRITISH VALUES

With Alex C Carrotte

A special feature from a Sudbrooke resident

VALUE ADDED SOCIETY?

Whether we call our society 'broken' or 'sick' or 'fragmented' or 'alienated', what we do currently have is a general feeling of dis-enfranchisement amongst certain, if not all sections of the population. In other words, we lack a sense of 'belongingness'.

We hear much from politicians who try to promote the idea of social cohesion via various party slogans which without a set of values to underpin them become meaningless 'soundbites'.

Firstly, we had the Tory notion of 'Big Society' which failed to engage the public. This was followed by Labour who promoted the notion of 'One Nation'.

More recently, as we approach the 2015 General Election, the politicians of both major parties are trying to seduce us with a single value of 'togetherness'. ("We are all in this together" from the Tories, and 51 mentions of the word 'together' in Ed Miliband's recent Conference speech).

The fast-emerging UKIP talks of 'traditional values' and argues that "UKIP strength is more about values than policy" yet these values are hard to locate, being implied at this stage rather than specified.

Consequently, it might be helpful to take a step back, and try to establish a commonly agreed set of 'British Values' to which all sections of society could subscribe, whatever their social, ethnic, cultural, political, or religious background.

Values are a set of recognised/accepted moral standards which underpin conduct by a person, group or institution. In other words, values are made meaningful, not by what you say, but by what you do.

It is no use identifying a set of common values if we do not 'live them out'. The following list identifies 33 core values that could possibly form the basis for such a set of societal values: accountability, advocacy, charity, commitment, common-sense, compassion, decency, democracy, duty, faithfulness, freedom, gallantry, governance, harmony, honesty, hospitality, humility, inclusiveness, industriousness, integrity, justice, mercy, modernity, preservation, resilience, respectfulness, restraint, rights, security, service, tolerance, transparency, unity.

If such a set of commonly agreed values were in place, then it may be that the following benefits would accrue:

- Act as a re-vitalisation tool for our society, giving us all fresh hope for the future.
- Create social harmony, by providing a strong base which would inform and underpin everything we believe, or say or do, in all areas of society and for all members of society (law-making Parliamentarians, policy-makers (Central and Local Government), public service delivery standards (Central and Local Government), ethical practices and standards in the workplace (commercial and industrial), international relations, community involvement, family life, social relationships, individual living, education.
- Help people to see the reasons why they should participate in the 'Big Society OR 'One Nation' - A common purpose based on shared values (even if people do not want, or are unable to participate, then they might still endorse such a set of shared values as a 'way of living together').
- Help in the formation of a British Bill of Rights (if required).

READERS' LETTERS

Your correspondence

Dear Editor,

With reference to last month's edition of Sudbrooke News where a lady wrote in drawing attention to the speed of vehicles on the estate.

I heartily agree with her comments about the early morning RUSH HOUR traffic. I feel that drivers need their attention drawn to the speed limit of 40mph in this village.

This is NOT a compulsory MINIMUM limit, but MAXIMUM limit. It is obvious that many drivers are under the misapprehension that they must attain this speed to travel on our roads. Or so it would appear the way they race around the bends in Holme Drive, Manor Drive and Scothern Lane. In Holme Drive near the village shop where there are always parked cars and vans. Children congregate and cross the road to await the school buses and with people visiting the shop to buy newspapers etc... there is always danger from cars which hurtle around the bends with engines roaring and scattering gravel from the poor road surface.

Often the windscreens on these cars are still misted or iced up.

COME ON DRIVERS! Please travel much slower before there is a serious accident. I shouldn't have to do an 80-yea-old's impression of Usaine Bolt when I cross the road and I hear a car approaching and see it sweep round the bend every bit like Lewis Hamilton at Silverstone.

*Mrs Ruth Mathews
a concerned resident*

Dear Editor,

In response to the letter from Paul Davies in last month's edition of the Sudbrooke News, I have recently spoken to a Rights of Way officer at the County Council in relation to the Parish Council's application in December 2012 to register a number of paths through Sudbrooke Woods as public rights of way.

The application is currently 139th on the priority list of 155 rights of way applications, and the County Council is only progressing 14 of these at the moment. You therefore do not have to be a skilled mathematician to work out that it will be many years before the Parish Council's application is progressed.

If residents are dismayed by this state of affairs they should contact any of our parish councillors and/or our County Councillor, Sue Rawlins, to see if pressure can be put to bear on the County Council in order for the application to be moved up the priority list.

Richard Drabble

Dear Editor,

Could I please appeal through the medium of Sudbrooke News to anyone who either through the Parish Council or any other means can provide more bench seats around our village.

They really are few and far between as anyone with walking disabilities can verify or those who just want to rest to enjoy the sights smells and sounds of the lovely village we are privileged to live in will endorse.

In my younger days a bench seat often became a place for young lovers to meet and many a romance blossomed there.

These days with most folks having access to motor cars I suppose it is no longer such a necessity for the younger generation, but please remember us older residents who would welcome the chance to rest weary bones as we totter about.

Perhaps those residents of the village who wish to be remembered after they have left the village for one reason or another might care to donate or bequeath a seat with a plaque on it.

What a lovely thing to do. This happens in most surrounding villages.

Paul Radcliffe

READERS' LETTERS

Your correspondence

Dear Editor,

In response to the letter in last month's Sudbrooke News from Paul Davies I can confirm that the application for registration of the footpaths within Sudbrooke Park on the definitive map is now number 139 out of 154 in the County Councils list of priorities.

According to the Footpaths Officer, no work will be done on the case until it is its turn to be worked on or is subsequently reprioritised.

With regard to future use of the claimed routes, the public are not legally entitled to continue to use the disputed routes until such time that public rights are found to exist on one or more of them.

The landowner is therefore entitled to prevent further use (other than on those previously registered) since no public rights are currently recorded on the Definitive Map.

Having personally walked the footpaths all my life I can fully understand the concerns of local residents.

Stuart Curtis
District Councillor

Dear Editor,

For a village as salubrious as Sudbrooke, it always amazes me how many houses seem to be on sale at any given time - and once they're sold they are quick to be followed by yet more houses who have erected estate agent boards in their front gardens. So, it begs the question, why do so many people want to leave Sudbrooke when it is considered one of the more popular villages to live in in the area?

I would love to know the answer...

THE CHURCH DIARY

A LETTER FROM BISHOP CHRISTOPHER

■ This year's time of remembrance is particularly poignant, given that it is the centenary of the dreadful tragic events of the First World War.

By the end of the war a million British men were dead, and two million more had been wounded. There was not a single family unacquainted with grief, nor a corner of life unaffected.

Many of us have become familiar with the story of Amy Beechey, a mother from Lincoln who saw eight sons go to war, and only three return. We can only imagine her grief; but every day of the war, her pain was known and understood by grieving relatives in households all over England.

The horror of the trenches, the scale of the slaughter, the tragic loss of so much human potential - all these things meant that long-held notions of an all-powerful God began to be questioned. Put simply: If God is loving and all-powerful, how could evil be allowed to flourish on this devastating scale? And why would we continue to trust in a God seemingly indifferent to our fate?

One person who wrestled with these questions was Geoffrey Studdert Kennedy, an army chaplain who earned the nickname Woodbine Willie for handing out cigarettes to the troops at the same time as copies of the New Testament. Woodbine Willie insisted on being on the front line with the troops whenever he could, and those battlefield experiences forced him to confront depths of evil and suffering which few of us will ever see.

Having entered the war with a secure faith in God and an abstract notion of evil, he ended it being absolutely certain of the existence of evil as a real and palpable force at work in the world.

The challenge, then, was to find a way to reconcile all that he had seen in the trenches with the existence of a God who was worth believing in.

For Woodbine Willie, hope came with an understanding that God was no longer a remote and detached figure at the peak of a great social pyramid.

No longer was God the almighty force of his pre-war understanding, able to prevent humans from harming one another if he so chose.

Instead, God was present in the heat of battle, suffering along with humanity, in the intolerable conditions of the trenches, in the endless slaughter of young lives, in the agony of Amy Beechey and all those like her back home.

God was characterised not by force and power, but by love; no longer remote from all that was going on, but intimately connected with it and suffering through it.

Writing in 1918, he said this: "God loves us enough to bear our burdens and suffer along with us; the destruction of war will not have the final word, because Christ's example promises us resurrection from death."

The first world war brought the horrifying reality of modern warfare to every home in the land; it brought a new awareness that God is not distant and other, but is involved through Jesus Christ in our struggles and sufferings.

Despite all the evil in the world we continue to have faith in this God: the God who brings love out of hate; light out of darkness; justice out of oppression; good out of evil; and life out of death. This is our God: the God of Love and Resurrection.

SUDBROOKE'S 'SHADOWS'

Life Story

A special feature on the village band that recreates the sounds of the 50s and 60s

WHO ARE THEY?

"Life Story" is the Creasey family band, who perform the music of The Shadows - plus a smattering of 50's rock'n'roll. While not a "tribute band" (we like to "do our own thing" from time-to-time, and the real Shadows still have their own hair!) we work quite hard to re-create the Shadows sound.

Peter and Paul played in various bands "back in the day", but the two brothers had always enjoyed the music of The Shadows, and included some of their tunes in their gigs. Family, mortgages and work pressures intervened, and by the 1980's most of their musical activities were but happy memories.

Trips to Shadows concerts kept the flame alive and the brothers became aware of an internet-based community of Shadows fans, and a network of Shadows guitar clubs around the country. A visit to a nearby club a dozen-or-so years ago sealed their fate, and the germ of an idea for a family Shadows-style band was formed.

Peter dusted-off his trusty Fender Stratocaster and Paul bought himself a 1970s Premier Drum Kit.

Paul's son, Dave, had been "messing about with guitars" for some years, but hadn't really been "going anywhere".

Peter's daughter, Charlotte, had been showing interest in music, and was keen to develop her Keyboard skills.

Peter's wife (and Charlotte's mother), Kim, agreed to learn bass guitar literally from scratch, and the embryo "Life Story" was born!

Taking the name "Life Story" seemed appropriate as it was one of The Shadows last album titles and, as the band comprises two generations of the Creasey family, it has been literally a life's work to bring it together.

Initial rehearsals took place "far from easily offended ears" at a farm on the outskirts of Saxilby, followed by "proper" gigs as far afield as Northwich, Chester le Street, Worksop, Barnsley, Nottingham and Lincoln Drill Hall.

We now rehearse regularly at High Green, Sheffield, and play at community and charitable functions around the East Midlands and the north of England.

The members of "Life Story" are (in descending order of decrepitude!):

- Paul Creasey, living in Sudbrooke, plays Drums and is a retired training manager.
- Peter Creasey, living in High Green, Sheffield, plays lead guitar and is a retired sales manager.
- Kim Creasey plays bass guitar and is a teaching assistant.
- Dave Creasey, plays rhythm guitar, lives in North Hykeham, and is a director and "grease monkey" mechanic at Lincoln's Autostar 2000.
- Charlotte Creasey, plays keyboards, lives in North Sheffield, and is a student.

"Life Story" is a strictly amateur (but certainly not "amateurish"!) band who are pleased to perform without charge for charitable and community organisations.

We are delighted to have been asked to perform at Sudbrooke Village Hall on December 20, 2014, and are looking forward to joining you for an enjoyable evening.

Should you wish us to support your own event, please contact Peter (at High Green, Sheffield) on 01142 845120 or Paul (at Sudbrooke) on 754575. We will be delighted to assist if we can.

FLU JABS

Our flu campaign is going well this year - a reminder to those who are not already booked in for this to do so as soon as possible.

This year we are also being asked to offer this in a nasal spray format to two, three and four-year-olds in an effort to reduce the spread of the infection. Please ask at reception if you need further details.

PATIENT SUPPORT

The Practice is working to improve our awareness and support for our patients who are also carers and Ela Baxter is our "Carers Champion" - please call in and speak to Ela if you require any assistance or wish to take advantage of any services available.

REPEAT PRESCRIPTIONS

The system of ordering a repeat prescription electronically has now been updated and changed from the beginning of the month. Anyone wishing to order their repeat medication will no longer be able to do this in the previous way.

The link on the website will now direct to our SystmOnline login screen and patients will need to complete a simple registration form available from reception or from our website and produce identification to obtain their new username and password.

Consent forms also include the facility to register for making and cancelling appointments online, receiving text messaging/email reminders for appointments are also available for those wishing to utilise this service.

If the patient's email address is provided on the consent form this will allow individuals to reset their own password if needed in the future without the need to contact the surgery.

Dispensary staff would also like to remind patients to take advantage of the email, answerphone, repeat slip ordering systems rather than ringing to speak to them.

Speaking directly to the staff is obviously the route if there are queries, but simple repeat ordering requests are dealt with more efficiently by the dedicated available mechanisms.

They would also find it helpful if patients could contact their selected chemist in the first instance if they are querying whether a prescription is ready rather than calling into the dispensary.

However, they are of course, happy to check if the chemist is unable to trace the prescription.

FEEDBACK

From December 1, 2014 we will be participating in the NHS Friends and Family patient feedback scheme which asks patients to answer one simple question about the Practice.

The cards will be in the surgery and enclosed with routine correspondence to patients and we would appreciate as many completed and returned and results will be collated and displayed during 2015.

GP CHANGES

Sadly, Dr Olaley Oginni will be leaving the practice at the end of December 2014. He has worked at the practice for just over five years and I'm sure will be missed by his patients. We all wish him well for the future.

We still have some flu clinics in November so it is not too late for you to book an appointment if you are eligible for the vaccinations.

From this year, these appointments are also available to be booked online via our website. If you don't yet have online access to book appointments or order repeat medication, please call in at the practice with photographic ID so that a unique PIN code can be created for you. Once created this provides you with on-going online access.

If you don't have internet access you can still contact the practice after 10am to book a flu appointment.

SHINGLES VACCINATION CLINICS

The practice now has some shingles vaccination clinics running for patients who are eligible. If you were born between:

NETTLEHAM LADIES FOOTBALL CLUB

www.nettlehamladies.co.uk

LATEST UPDATE

The Netts maintained their solid form in the East Midlands Premier Division, with Stacey Aisthorpe and Suzy Pramukova both hitting hat-tricks as they hammered Arnold Town 9-0.

There was also a brace for Tiffany Lunn, while sub Courtney Limb also got in on the act.

Eastwood Community posed a tougher threat three weeks later, but the rampant Netts saw them off 3-1. That win leaves them fifth in the table with four victories and a defeat from their five outings thus far, although Peterborough Northern Star and Ellistown could be tough acts to pass as both those sides still have 100 per cent records intact after five games.

In the FA Cup, Nettleham progressed to the next round of the competition after a comprehensive 5-0 defeat of Sandiacre.

The deadly duo of Aisthorpe (2) and Pramukova continued their form in front of goal by contributing three, while Lunn and Jen Purnell were also on the scoresheet.

HEALTH CROSSROADS

How about this? What if I could offer you a pill that would GUARANTEE that you would be 40 per cent less likely to get a heart attack, 40 per cent less likely to be arthritic, 40 per cent less likely to have a stroke, 40 per cent less likely to develop cancers like breast or bowel cancer, 40 per cent less likely to become diabetic?

Would you be interested? I just bet you would. In fact, there'd be queues all round the Carlton Centre from Wellbeing Fitness for it. And I would become filthy rich, obsessed with money and retire to the Bahamas to spend the rest of my life in idleness and luxury.

Now you know as well as I do that there is no such pill - or if there were one, it would have such horrendous side-effects that you probably wouldn't want to bother.

BUT - and I want you to listen to this carefully - I CAN guarantee the 40 per cent reduction in the likelihood of getting all those illnesses. Over the last few years there has been scientific study after scientific study which has proved beyond any shadow of a doubt that if you do regular exercise you decrease dramatically the chance of developing any of those life-threatening illnesses I listed at the top of the page.

And what's more, you don't have to be slim - you can be overweight and still get the benefit. And even better - YOU ARE NEVER TOO OLD TO START. The benefits start happening whatever age you are.

So why isn't everyone doing it? Well, I'll tell you. Most people just hate the idea of going to a gym. Because basically you are on your own.

True, there are lots of people around, but they aren't interested in you, just themselves. And strangely enough it's the same with going to a fitness class - some people would say it's worse. You are there with 25 or 30 other people. You look around and they are all better at doing it than you are - nobody talks to you so you skulk in, do the exercises and then skulk out again.

No wonder people who try it give up after a short while. It's well known in my business that that is how gyms make their money. Most people are paying fees on a contract, but never attending.

That's why our Small Group Training sessions were such an innovation and why they're so successful.

For a start, we limit the numbers very strictly so that you are always with just a few others, the trainer gets to know you, and you get to know all the other people who are there.

And the trainers make it fun. They don't flog you to death.

In fact the research indicates that you don't even have to get sweaty to feel the benefits. So everyone works at their own pace and everyone has an enjoyable time. You meet different people, maybe go for a coffee afterwards. It's the perfect solution.

So if you're one of those people who just groans when people mention "exercise" - or if you feel you're too old to start, or simply that you just can't be bothered, why don't you give it a try.

I think you'll be amazed at how different you feel, even after the first session.

And when your friends look in amazement and disbelief when you tell them, you can smile smugly to yourself and think, "but I've found the magic pill

- I'm going to live for ever!!"

Best wishes
Tristan

DUNHOLME CAMERA CLUB

With Grahame Dunkin

01673 860469 - dunholmecc@btinternet.com

NOVEMBER MEETINGS

During November, the Camera Club has three meetings, although only two of the are at the Old School as the first meeting on the 13th we will be out and about having a "Ghost Walk" in Lincoln.

This is one of our evenings out that members get the opportunity to use their cameras at night. This particular evening though we will be looking for ghouls and ghosts - okay, having a walk round Lincoln with a tour guide ghouls and ghosts will be added extras.

Our second meeting will be on the 20th, when we will be having the grand finale of this year's "Monthly Competition".

During the year I have set the members a monthly challenge which is to take photographs of various things during the year. Each month I judge the competition and give some critique/feedback on their images this of course helps everyone to look at their images and hopefully during the year get better at their photography.

Our third meeting on the 27th will be our Chairman's challenge, although this year it is our Chairlady's challenge as our Chairman is a lady, our first lady Chair for 20 years. The challenge is always set by whoever is Chair for the year and the winner receives our Chairman's Challenge shield. This year the members have to take a "People Picture" so a bit of street photography required.

The end results will be judged on the night so all members need to get out there with their cameras and hopefully take the winning shot.

We will be holding extra nights for our photographers during the winter period so if you would like some help with the workings of your camera or what to do with your photographs once they have been taken then get in touch for details.

Don't forget anyone can join the Camera Club so if you want to buy a member of your family an annual membership for Christmas it will be something they will gain knowledge from at a low membership price of just £30 per year.

Want further details about the Camera Club? Then get in touch with me on 01673 860469 or email me at: dunholmecc@btinternet.com.

FIVE MINUTES WITH... A villager

Sudbrooke has many interesting residents living in the village and this is the latest in a series where we get to know a bit more about the characters living amongst us.

NEXT IN THE SPOTLIGHT IS PAUL CREASEY

How long have you lived in the village and where are you from originally?

Born in Sheffield 70 years ago, but I have lived in Lincoln for all except my very earliest years - I claim "dual nationality" so can be a "Yorkshireman" when it suits! Me and my wife, Margaret, moved to Sudbrooke in 2006 into an easily-managed bungalow.

You obviously like your music as you're in a band called 'Life Story' - what are your musical preferences? What do you like listening to?

I play drums in our family band "Life Story". We are a predominantly Shadows-style band, so The Shads would have to be at the top of a, quite long, list.

Guitar music in general also appeals and there's a fair bit of Chet Atkins, Mark Knopfler and Hank Marvin (as a solo artist) in our CD collection.

Frank Sinatra, Neil Diamond, Thin Lizzy and Caro Emerald take-up quite a bit of shelf space, too. We were members of the (now defunct) Spalding Blues Club for many years, and like both Delta Blues and the rather punchier "Blues Rock" as performed by bands like The Nimmo Brothers & King King. We are big fans of an American Blues singer called Kent DuChaine, and travel quite extensively to see him when he's touring the UK.

Village Hall bar manager Paul Rignall said The Rolling Stones would be his dream gig in the village; whose would yours be if you could choose anyone, dead or alive?

The Shadows (of course!!) But the nearest you're likely to get is "Life Story" on December 20!!

Tell readers why they should get down to the Christmas 'do' at the Village Hall in December and see you in action - what can they expect?

It looks like a good opportunity for villagers to socialise and celebrate Christmas together.

There looks to be something for everyone - from five to 85 - planned during the evening. Tickets only a fiver, too. WHAT a bargain!

So far as "Life Story" is concerned, you can expect two - perhaps three - 40-minute sets later-on in the evening. One will be mainly Shadows instrumentals, including hits like "Apache", "FBI", & "Kon-Tiki".

The others will be rather more angled towards the Rock 'n' Roll classics. You'll also get to see five members of the Creasey family playing their hearts out!

What would you change about the village if you had the opportunity?

I don't think I would! One of my "pet hates" is people who move-in (anywhere) and then proceed to try and change everything.

Sum the village up in one sentence.

Peaceful, friendly, and well-cared-for.
