SUDBROOKE NEWS GETS COLOURFUL

■ Autumn Show details ■ Pensioner Reminisces ■ Council notes ■ And much more

EDITOR'S RAMBLINGS

JULY/AUGUST 2018

THIS month's joint edition is a historic one as we add a dash of colour for the very first time, albeit just the front and back. I decided on picturesque snaps of the village, if only to preserve them for time immemorial, given the scene on the front no longer looks like that due to the development work that has started in Sudbrooke woods.

September's Autumn Show gets some good coverage this month, although talk of autumn seems a long way off - quite rightly - given how hot it has been for the last few weeks, with no signs of the heatwave slowing down.

Terry Mayo again regales us with tales from his youth, while a popular local figure heads for pastures new - check out pages 20-21. I must also point out that Kokoo hairdressers is still open for business - it seems some residents got the wrong end of the stick after reading the interview with Arvind the new shop owner in the June edition. Stoked. Dom

PARISH COUNCILLOR VACANCY

CARE ABOUT SADBROOKE AND YOUR COMMUNITY?

Then why not play your part and have your say in the well-being of both. A vacancy exists on Sudbrooke Parish Council where the problems and concerns of the parish and its residents are dealt with.

Previous experience is not necessary and enthusiasm is the main requirement. Interested?

Please contact the Clerk to the Council on sudbrookeparishcouncil@gmail.com for further details or write to her at: 94 Jubilee Close, Cherry Willingham, LN3 4LD

It is hoped that co-option can take place at the September meeting of the Parish Council.

SADBROOKE NEIGHBOURHOOD PLAN

Following on from the article in the previous edition of the Sudbrooke News, the Neighbourhood Plan Steering Group would like to inform you of the progress with the Neighbourhood Plan.

Since April 2018, we have been busy updating our evidence base and preparing a draft of the Neighbourhood Plan taking into consideration the feedback received during previous consultations and the Neighbourhood Plan process involves a number of stages before it can be completed.

The bulk of the preparation is underway and we are aiming to complete our first draft of the Neighbourhood Plan by early July.

A six-week consultation period will then follow where the community will have the opportunity to view, and make comments, on the proposals.

AUTUMN SHOW

Vegetables, fruit, flowers, jams, scones, flans, foliages, crafts and much more

WHAT WILL YOU BRING?

Hello Sudbrooke Villagers!

Each year there are two village shows in the Village Hall which are open for entries from ALL villagers. The shows are run by members of the Sudbrooke Gardening Club. Even if you do not enter any exhibits, it is worth a visit to see the array of entries of flowers, vegetables, photography, crafts and baking.

We would LOVE more support and entries from village residents and you will receive a very warm welcome... so why not come along with your longest bean or the cuddly toy that you made for the children.

Perhaps try your hand in the baking classes or bring along a favourite photo that sums up 'In the garden' for you. It doesn't have to be in a frame... just print it out and bring it along! If you have children or grandchildren, then we would love to have entries from them as well.

It is totally free for children to enter and they will all get a certificate and some sweets. There is a first and second prize awarded by the judges in the junior section as well as a trophy for the adjudged junior winner, which they can keep until the next show.

Adult entries are 20p per item to help defray the cost of hiring the hall, providing raffle prizes, sweets for the children, printing the award certificates and the prizes etc. Adults have the opportunity of winning prizes as well as our two trophies - one for 'Best in Show' and the other for 'Overall Winner' (again, retained until the next show).

The Autumn Show is on Monday, 10 September commencing at 6pm. So why not pop along for the public viewing at 7.45pm, buy a cuppa for 50p (with free refills!), meet up with other residents and stay for the presentation of prizes and trophies.

The Rules and Schedule of Entries can be found on pages 18-19 and will also be published in the September issue of this magazine.

PUBLIC MATTERS

WITH DISTRICT COUNCILLOR BOB WALLER

LATEST UPDATE

Some residents may have heard that WLDC has invested £7,000 in cameras and may not understand the rationale behind the decision, so I thought a few more facts may help people understand the initiative

Councillors approved a policy last year and have recently purchased 12 body cameras to assist officers in their day-to-day work. The council is putting the body worn cameras to use for officers for two main reasons:

1. Enhance the safety of employees and members of the public
2. Assist with the collection of evidence for offences that we deal with

The council is committed to protecting our staff and members of the public and hopefully the cameras will prevent situations escalating. They are also a great way of gathering evidence to ensure appropriate action can be carried out in the most efficient way.”

The cameras will be used to support staff who deal with a range of issues such as:

- Inspecting land or premises with warrants
- Property inspections
- Anti-social behaviour
- Environmental Crime

Some staff who carry out inspections in the district have received verbal abuse and threats and the nature of their job means they sometimes go into hostile situations. The cameras will act as a deterrent and will support our staff when carrying out their duties. The practice of using cameras like this is not new as many local authorities and the police have been using them for some time.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding WLDC I would be happy to hear from you and help if I can.

THE STUART CURTIS HALL

Around 50 residents were present to witness the naming of the main hall of the Village Hall as the Stuart Curtis Hall last month, in memory of the popular former resident and parish/district councillor, who died last year.

Stuart's wife Lyn and her family were there, while some of Stuart's West Lindsey District Council colleagues also attended the occasion.

Allan McCrone paid tribute to Stuart's work as a founder member of the Village Hall committee.

A brass plaque has been erected (pictured) in the Stuart Curtis Hall.

■ A GARDENER'S DELIGHT

► A truly lovely garden which gives immeasurable pleasure to both its owners and visitors alike - our thanks to Sandy and David for inviting us to share it with them for the evening.

Visitors are welcomed to the property by a sweeping gravel driveway with central flowerbeds planted for all seasons and filled with Cistus, Hebe, Rock Roses, Geraniums, Lavender and balls of Euonymus.

Following the course of the lawn with large established trees and shrubbery towards the house, we admired the prolific white flowering Pyracantha growing up the exterior and softening the walls of the house - careful trimming resulting in a profusion of orange berries in the Autumn to be enjoyed by the local birds. There are flowerbeds by the front door with trimmed evergreen conifers and two clipped topiaries have been recently manicured and look very smart indeed.

Upon entering the rear garden, a crazy paved patio and terrace gives a superb view down the garden as it gently slopes away and our eyes were drawn by an archway covered like a blanket in a rose called "Paul's Himalayan Musk"; it's flowers ageing from pale pink through to white. The back of the property has more Pyracantha adorning the walls, the flowers so dense that you cannot see any green leaves; a beautiful pink Rose and a large Wisteria have already flowered for this year. The garden has an enveloping feeling of space and tranquillity throughout. Following the short stream planted either side with flowering perennials that follows the terrace past a second patio down the centre of the garden, there is the gentle sound of running water emanating from a waterfall flowing serenely into the pond where newts, tadpoles, water boatmen and pond skaters are resident. There are curving lawns either side surrounded by borders of beautiful planting.

All our senses are engaged in appreciation of the cornucopia of beautiful Clematis, striking bronze Phormiums, Roses, Poppies, Lupins, ground covering Geraniums, Geum, Box topiary, Hostas and more.

While viewing the borders at eye-level, one's sight is eventually drawn upwards to admire the rambling white "Seagull" rose which was doing an excellent job of winding its way through the branches of an old fruit tree, creating a superb flowering waterfall effect.

Progressing through the central archway which we had admired from the patio, we notice the very large Willow that was pollarded some three years ago that is re-establishing its large fluffy head. With a backdrop of Hornbeam, Silver Birch and some specimen fir trees, the bottom of the garden feels very cosy. The borders are densely planted with evergreen shrubs melting into each other. The simplified palette of colour along with the shape and texture of the differing leaves, interspersed with a variety of perennials, created a restful mood in this area and the song of resident birds filled the air.

Eventually, all members gathered together on the lower patio to participate in the judging of the garlic growing challenge. This was set last October when members were given a single clove to plant in a pot and nurture. As the bulbs were unearthed there was much frivolity.

The diameter of each bulb was measured and recorded - the largest being 64mm and the smallest 31mm. The size difference was mainly due to the largest garlic bulbs having been fed with an onion and leek fertiliser.

There were 17 entries in the keenly contested Flower of the Month competition and it was won by John Whitaker's stunning blue/yellow Iris Reticulata. Sandy Bowles' pale pink Peony came in second place and Janet Stocker's beautifully scented pink Rose was placed third.

The array of flowers was stunning and many thanks to everyone for their participation.

■ TASKS FOR JUNE

► Our annual summer outing on Thursday 12 July is to Scampston Hall & Gardens, situated in Malton, North Yorkshire. Members are looking forward to a private tour of the Hall followed by lunch and an afternoon free to explore the gardens.

■ BEST FRONT GARDEN COMP

► A reminder that the initial judging of village front gardens as visible from the public footpath will take place during the two-week period ending 20 July to select the best six to go forward into the finals, which will be judged by our sponsors (Scothern Nurseries) during the afternoon of Friday 27 July. The winner and runner-up will be announced in the September issue of Sudbrooke News and the trophy will be presented at the Village Autumn Show on Monday 10 September.

■ AUGUST MEETING

► Our AGM will take place on Monday, 13 August at the Village Hall.

■ TASKS FOR JULY/AUGUST

► Happy summer gardening! The best advice we can give is to sit down, relax and enjoy your gardens whenever the weather is fine.

Whilst you are pottering around, keep plants looking good by regularly dead-heading bedding plants and repeat flowering perennials and you will be rewarded by a longer display of blooms.

During dry periods remember to water containers and new plants and hoe off weeds which always seem to thrive whatever the conditions.

August is the time to prune summer flowering shrubs and order catalogues for next year's spring flowering bulbs in readiness for perhaps exhibiting for the first time in the Village Spring Show, which is run by gardening club members.

SUDBROOKE WALKING CLUB

WITH MIKE HALLIDAY - 01522 754686

■ JUNE WALK

► Twelve walkers enjoyed lovely weather for the six-mile circular walk from Wragby.

The woodland and meadows were fresh and green with lots of wild flowers and it's always a treat to see how the relatively new woodland planted by the Forestry Commission has developed.

Familiar paths approaching Thistle Storr wood were very overgrown, but eventually we found the bridge needed to cross a dike.

No renovation work has been done on the burnt out St George's chapel which is a shame.

■ FUTURE WALKS

► In July we shall be doing the much postponed Temple Bruer walk. It is approximately seven miles on level tracks.

The Preceptory and surrounding site have a fascinating history and well worth a read in the County Council 'Stepping Out' leaflet.

In August we shall be doing a local walk so no cars are needed.

The walk is around seven miles and will take us through Sudbrooke Park towards Reasby then onto Pickering's Meadow Nature Reserve, before passing through Scothern and back to Sudbrooke.

Walkers should meet at the village hall at 9.30am and are advised to take a waterproof coat, wear some suitable footwear and bring a drink and a snack. Please note we walk on the first Saturday of every month.

SUDBROOKE LADIES CLUB

WITH GILL RIGNALL - 01522 595736

■ LATEST UPDATE

► We welcomed John Leatt from Golding Young auctioneers to our June meeting. He brought some interesting items and spoke about the ivory trade, which is shortly to be outlawed in the UK.

Members brought their treasures and collectables and John talked about the history of each item and gave valuations. None of us will be moving to the Bahamas on the strength of this!

We will be having afternoon tea at Doddington Hall on July 19.

■ NEXT MEETING

The next meeting in the village hall will be on September 20: 'A load of rubbish' - a talk on recycling by West Lindsey District Council. This is a return of a surprisingly interesting speaker.

■ FUTURE MEETING

► October 18: Stuart Gibbon speaking about 'Staying Safe'

■ WHO WE ARE

► Please note meetings are open to all residents. Guests are always welcome and are asked to contribute £2.

We meet in the Bramham Lounge at 7.30pm on the third Thursday of most months. We have a variety of speakers. There is a book stall and we collect used stamps and small coins for charity. The full 2018 programme is on the Parish Council website: parishes.lincolnshire.gov.uk/Sudbrooke/.

■ DOG MESS STILL AN ISSUE

Dear Editor,

I am afraid I am going to have a rant about irresponsible dog owners... namely those who fail to pick up their mutt's mess after they have emptied out.

My house is just yards away from a dog mess bin and I am becoming more and more fed up with owners letting their dogs poo on my grass and then failing to pick up the brown stuff. Can I ask these owners, why that is?

Why can't you be bothered to pick up your dog's excrement and deposit it in a bin not more than a stone's throw away from where it was deposited? Why do find it acceptable to let your dog leave a steaming great turd on someone else's grass? Would you let your dog do the same on your lawn?

I have young children, plus there are a fair few neighbours of mine also with children and what thought is given by these disgraceful dog owners to their safety?

Answer? None whatsoever. I'm not buying the excuse that owners don't realise their dog is relieving itself of yesterday's intake - you know when your dog is stopping for longer than the proverbial cocking of a leg and I find it incredulous that you would just turn a blind eye to this act. You should be ashamed.

■ IT'S TOUGH SOMETIMES

► As I sit down to write this blog, my thoughts have been inevitably drawn to the events of the last week. Three major events happening across the world, each potentially having major consequences for each of us in our lives.

A G7 summit ending in acrimony, where like-minded nations seems to be not so like-minded any more. The highly-publicised and hyped meeting of the leaders of the USA and North Korea, a meeting of hope for the future or a false dawn? And at home the Government managing to progress its Brexit legislation through parliament in the form it wants.

Each of these events has changed the political landscape and has the potential to make a real difference (good or bad) to the way we live our lives. Each of the events will bring change to us and changes to the world.

It's that idea of change that I would like to focus on, for other than death, change is the only thing in our lives we can be certain of. Yet for many, change is something that we have great difficulty with. It takes us out of our comfort zone, those routines that we have in our lives that enable to go onto autopilot, things we just do without thinking. And when it changes it can seem to feel like everything comes crashing down around us.

However when we continually fight against and reject change, any change that makes us live our lives differently than we do, then we can feel very stressed, tired, disillusioned and often excluded.

Embracing change though - if it's well thought out - can bring very much the opposite effect, it can be exciting, open up opportunities for us, and most definitely help us to remain included. In our readings in church last Sunday we heard a remark by Jesus where he changed the nature of his family.

Initially he seems to callously dismiss his mother and brothers (his family) as not relevant to him, but then we realise that this is not the case. He is actually changing the definition of family to include all who accept and believe in him. A change that initially seems harsh, but afterwards seems absolutely the right and proper thing to do. Jesus is the master of change, for that is his the whole purpose of his coming.

In my own life, things are about to change too. I have been appointed as the Rector of the Walesby Group of Parishes, 11 churches, nine parishes in the beautiful Lincolnshire Wolds.

Chrissie, Henry and I are now gearing up for our move there in mid-August. We have enjoyed immensely our three years with you, but we to now need to move on and embrace this new phase in our lives and the amazing changes and experiences it will bring for us all.

Change will come to each and every one of us as we go through our lives, how we deal with it is up to us. Not all change is good, we make mistakes (things to reflect and learn from) and some change needs to be fought. But the forward tide and pressure of change cannot be stopped. Time does not and should not stand still.

Thank you to everyone for the support we have received in our time here, and may God bless you all as you move on with your lives too.

A PENSIONER REMINISCES:

I always find picking blackberries a very therapeutic experience. Nowadays you can find plenty of plastic containers to put them in. When I was a youngster it would have been mum's pudding basin, but more often than not it would have been a blue sugar bag (during the war, when sugar arrived in your local grocers in a hessian sack, the shopkeeper would fill the standard 16-ounce blue paper bag using a metal scoop). It was paid for in cash, but you would have to hand over your coupons first, as rationing only allowed a very limited quantity.

Mum would empty the contents into the sugar tin and carefully fold up the empty bag for later use! So I often used one for blackberries. It did have a downside as you may have figured out. By the time the bag was full, the juice would have started to ooze out of the bottom, and unless you kept a close watch on your collection, the bag would burst and the whole lot would end up on the ground, worst still amongst the brambles! And to retrieve them would take the rest of the day, and almost required a transfusion for the blood loss trying to ease the best ones out from amongst the thorns.

For the past few years we've always managed to pick some, and, mixing them with apples, had some great pies, but in recent times supplies have outstripped demand. I've picked them in Sudbrooke within a stone's throw of my house, but the buildup in the freezer has continued unabated. The other day we were desperately searching for spare freezer space to contain other stuff. I determined I would have a clear out, and I groped to the bottom of the fore mentioned freezer, and with fingers suffering from second-degree frostbite, discovered umpteenth pounds of blackberries stashed away for a rainy day.

What to do with them all?

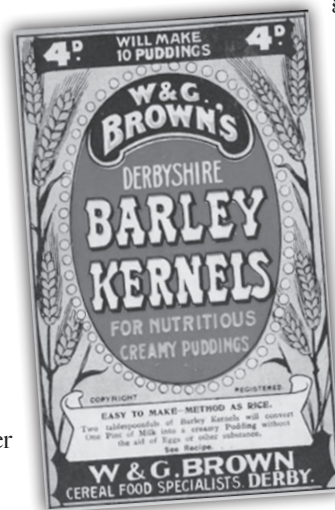

Well, in recent times, and probably due to the fact that I've been over indulging for at least the last 70 years, I thought it time I tried to impress my GP by trying to eat a little more healthily. I'd discovered on line that blueberries (yes, you can see where this is going), have many great health giving benefits, but not particularly cheap, and soon go off.

I thought the sensible thing to do would be to check out the nutritional contents of blackberries.

From the Internet: Wikipedia suggest many more health benefits too, so that's it then. Out with the blueberries and in with the black ones! And best of all they're free. Defrost a few at a time, and sprinkle liberally over my Weetabix, they are quite delightful, and I'm going to live forever!

I guess during the war my breakfasts would have been pretty limited, I'm trying to remember what that might have been. Can some of you oldies remember? I do remember my grandad keeping hens, and occasionally we would have an egg, but that would have been on just rare occasions. Eggs being such a rare luxury, all we could get were powdered ones in a packet. You couldn't fry it or boil it, the only choice was to scramble it. My mum would spoon it out of the packet into a saucepan, and just add a little milk before stirring it over the gas cooker. It tasted perfectly alright to me, having really known nothing else.

“Malt came in a jar, was mixed with cod liver oil and was packed with Vitamin C”

A favourite in wintertime was barley kernels. They tasted a little bit like porridge oats, mixed with hot milk, but probably cheaper. A packet cost just over one pence.

We also had toast of course, often spread with dripping (pig fat). The other food I enjoyed was some dark brown sweet sticky stuff that mum spread on our bread, called malt. It came in a jar and was mixed with cod liver oil, packed with vitamin C, and I expect it was given mainly to prevent colds, but probably other things too. You can still buy it online today.

With antibiotics not having yet been invented, mum and dad did everything to keep us children safe, of course. I don't remember if my parents had to pay the doctor before the National Health Service came in, but it certainly was easier to see the doctor then than it appears to be these days.

There weren't any health centres of course, doctors just practised on their own. My doctor, Dr Larsen, converted his attached garage into a waiting room, and the procedure was to simply turn up at his house, and join the queue. No appointment was necessary. When he had seen everyone, he would set off in his car to visit any of his patients that for whatever reason couldn't make it to the surgery.

He would most definitely let you know if you could have turned up to his place and didn't. There was no backup day or night, and if need be he would visit day or night.

I don't really remember ever being ill other than having the odd cold, and having a dose of chicken pox, but I do recall just once giving my parents a worrying time. I'd fallen over and hurt my knee (a regular occurrence), but this time it followed up with pain in my groin. Dr Larsen diagnosed that my leg had become septic, and with no antibiotics available in those days, the poison would have to be drawn out with a poultice of Kaolin (I believe it's still used for the same thing in horses).

The poultice was heated up in the tin it came in, and applied directly on the open wound of my knee. I would scream with pain, but slowly it did the trick, and in the end was grateful for the treatment.

Last month I mentioned a country that I had visited a few years ago that had no bus service. (in fact no buses), with answers on the back of a £20 note. With no replies I'm £20 the poorer, but it was the Falkland Islands.

■ A HOUSING MYSTERY

Dear Editor,

Can someone explain to me why there are always so many houses for sale in Sudbrooke?

Every week on my walks through the village there seems to be a new house on the market - where do all these people move to and why are they living our village?

I would love to know the reason - are they getting out before the development begins?

■ VILLAGE SHOP THUMBS UP

Dear Editor,

Thank goodness the village shop has finally returned to Sudbrooke and I hope the new proprietor makes a real good of his new business.

Sudbrooke was without a shop for far too long and now I can stroll down the road to buy my paper rather than get the car out and head to Nettleham. Bliss.

■ AWARDS TIME

► The General Practice Awards 2018 - People's Choice Award: Surgery of the Year goes live for the first time!

The General Practice Awards are an annual celebration of the hard work, innovation, and dedication taking place in primary care across the UK. Showcasing the very best projects, teams, and leaders and sharing in achievements, the awards are a fantastic chance to step back and reflect on the past year.

A new award has been added for 2018 - The People's Choice Award: Surgery of the Year. New this year, the award offers the general public the chance to give their thanks and show appreciation for their local healthcare team. It is also perfectly timed to tie in with the NHS' 70th birthday celebrations!

After a period of nominations, the long list is now open for voting with 81 surgeries in the running to be crowned surgery of year and we are one of them!

You can vote for free online via the General Practice Awards website and really get behind the practice to help them make the short list. Voting closes on August 10, with the short list being announced on September 3.

To cast your vote, go to: www.generalpracticeawards.com/the-awards/peoples-choice-award/ or simply text 'CHOICE48' to '60777'.

There are 12 other award categories on offer at the General Practice Awards 2018 including GP of the Year, Practice Nurse of the Year, Healthcare Leader of the Year, and GP Team of the Year. All the information about how to

For any queries, please contact generalpracticeawards@cogora.com.

■ CARERS AWARENESS AWARD

► The practice has been busy over the last six months working towards the Lincolnshire Carer Awareness Award and have successfully achieved the standard required recently.

The staff at the practice have undergone training to help them identify and offer support options to patients who have long term carer commitments. As part of the work undertaken to achieve the award, the practice have introduced carer bags which contain lots of useful contact details and information to help support the work of unpaid carers.

The definition of a carer is:

'A carer is someone who looks after a relative or friend who due to ill health, physical or mental illness, disability, frailty or addiction can not manage without help'.

If you are a carer, please make sure that you inform the practice so that we can clearly record on your records and ask for a carer pack when you are next in the practice.

■ MONTHLY EARLY CLOSURES FOR TRAINING 2018

► In order to enable our doctors and staff to be kept up to date Nettleham surgery will be closed for training at 1pm on the following afternoons: Tuesday 18 September and Tuesday 16 October.

DUNHOLME CAMERA CLUB

WITH GRAHAM DUNKIN - 01673 860469 (dunholmecc@btinternet.com)

■ EVENING GROUP

► The summer is well upon us and members are getting out and about with their cameras, this year at the club we seem to be getting to grips with some macro photography (close ups) of flowers, insects and all things little.

This is something new for some of the members and of course a new learning curve which is what the club is all about, learning new skills with your camera and improving your techniques on the types of photography each member likes, this of course is done by sharing information with other members and learning from each other.

Come and join us one evening and see what it is all about, everyone is welcome and your level of photography has no bearing on whether you should join or not, you don't have to enter competitions or stand up and discuss photography, you can just sit and listen and enjoy seeing the images from other members of the club.

So what do we have in July? Three meetings:

- 1) July 12: A competition against two other clubs in the LPA, our judge will be Dave Hollingsworth.
- 2) July 19: "Astro Photography" a talk by one of our members Charles Thody. Charles will have some great images from outer space come and see them.
- 3) July 26: We will have our fifth club competition which will be "Scapes" this includes Landscapes, Seascapes and Sky (cloud) images. Judge is Colin Lusby.

■ DAYTIME GROUP

► A great day out was had in June when we visited Cleethorpes. Many images taken on the day and hopefully all of the members enjoyed themselves (ice cream and chips were not compulsory, but some did partake).

Our meeting in July will be out on the Lincolnshire Wolds taking in the splendor of the sights and sounds. On this day we will be mainly taking Landscape images, but there will also be opportunity to get the close up and macro lenses out.

You can join our day group as it is a very informal group which has been started for those people who want to get out with their cameras and have a go with some practical photography rather than competitions and the other activities carried out in the evening groups.

All you need to join the Day Group is your camera and sometimes a tripod. We meet once a month and our date for meeting in July is Thursday 26th July, times are still to be confirmed but if you would like to join us then please get in touch to make arrangements to join us we will be car sharing.

Well that's it for this month but please get in touch for any further information about the camera club.

■ SURVEY

► Earlier in the year the practice conducted a survey in line with the National NHS England survey. The results were collated and discussed with the Patient Group (PDA) on Thursday 7 June 2018.

The results were positive and an improvement on the 2017 National Survey which was encouraging to see.

Thank you to all the patients that supported the practice by completing the survey. The full report and results are available on the practice website and in the waiting room.

■ DNAs

► In June we had 36 patients fail to attend for their GP appointments and 91 patients fail to attend for their nursing appointments.

This is 21 hours of appointments in one month, which equates to six appointments per day. Please try and let us know if you are unable to make an appointment, even if it is short notice, as in most cases we can re-book it with another patient.

■ HOSPITAL APPOINTMENTS

► For patients that need to ask questions about their hospital appointments, please could we ask that you contact the department you are attending directly via the telephone number on your appointment letter.

■ HEALTHWATCH

► The Practice welcomed Healthwatch to the surgery on Wednesday 30 May 2018. They came and spent the morning speaking to patients about their views on the surgery and healthcare in general.

Thank you to any patients that may have participated in this.

■ STAFF TRAINING

► The surgery will be closed for staff training from 1pm on Tuesday 17 July 2018 until 8am on Wednesday 18 July 2018.

When considering the staff training afternoon, please could we ask that you order any medication with as much notice as possible to enable us to meet the tight deadlines that we face.

A minimum of 48 working hours' notice is required please.

For those that don't already, we have facilities to order your medication online at any time, please see the dispensary for more details.

■ WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS

► First I would like to share with you the excellent news that the Welton PDA has been selected as winners in the Community Group category for the Lincolnshire County Council Good Citizens Award.

I understand there is to be an article with photographs in the July edition of the County News. By the time you read this the presentation will have been made at the Lincolnshire Show on June 21.

We are delighted that all the hard work of the PDA has been acknowledged and judged to be worthy of county recognition!

■ AUTUMN FAYRE

► Our next event will be the Autumn Fayre on Saturday 20 October. I am still actively trying to obtain raffle prizes from businesses and also housing developers building in the Health Centre practice area. I am hoping to get the tickets printed and on sale by the end of June.

We will be having all the usual stalls and games plus a few new ones. If anyone has anything they could donate to bric-a-brac, books, tombola or bottle and glass stall (not necessarily alcohol). Please give me a call if you have anything you need collecting.

We will be hiring out tables for £10 each for anyone wishing to sell their own items. We reserve the right to refuse a table if the sales items are in direct conflict with a PDA stall and we will endeavour to get a good mix of stalls.

If you want to hire a table please give me a call and, nearer to the date, we will confirm your request.

■ BOOKING PROCEDURE

► Could I please remind all patients that the correct procedure for booking transport is through the Health Centre?

This avoids messages being left on my answerphone when I am away and transport being missed.

Could I also ask that you give as much notice as possible? It's easier to cancel a transport request that to sort something out at the last minute. If you require any further information on any of the above don't hesitate to give me a call on the above number.
